TRADITION TWELVE

“Anonymity is the spiritual foundation of all our Traditions, ever reminding us to place principles before personalities.”

Spiritual substance of anonymity is sacrifice. Because C.A.'s Twelve Traditions repeatedly ask us to give up personal desires for the common good, we realize that the sacrificial spirit – well symbolized by anonymity – is the foundation for them all. It is C.A.'s proved willingness to make these sacrifices that gives people their high confidence in our future.

The Lighter Side of CA

My sponsor told me they don't lock you up for being crazy, only for acting crazy.

When you look in the mirror, you are looking at the problem, but remember, you are also looking at the solution.

The truth will set you free but first it may piss you off.

C. A. Wisdom

We usually condemn in others what we dislike in ourselves.

I am a seeker of external solutions to internal problems.

The only thing we can take with us when we leave this world is what we gave away.

Faith in a Higher Power

Cocaine Anonymous introduced us to a Power greater than ourselves that could manage our problem. That doesn't necessarily mean we have to turn our will and our lives over to the care of the God that we heard of in the past. It can mean trusting a Power of our own understanding. This is the beginning of our Higher Power, God, as we understand Him.

Some of us adopt, or come back to, a traditional God. Others see our Higher Power as some kind of force. Some define it as the force of the group, while others don't define it at all.

At first, it is sufficient for God, as you understand Him, to be the power that the group obviously has to help to get rid of the obsession to use.

No one comes into Cocaine Anonymous to find God. We come to these rooms to get rid of a terrifying drug habit. Look around in a meeting. You're surrounded by people who came as a last resort. We came into these rooms emotionally, financially and spiritually bankrupt. We have experienced all sorts of tragedies as a result of cocaine, drugs and/or alcohol. We have lived many of the same horrors you have, yet today we are happy. We are free from the misery, terror, and pain of drug addiction.

As long as you are willing, your belief will grow. You will learn through your own experience and the experiences of others how a Higher Power can help you with your cocaine problem... If you are having trouble with talking about God, remember:

- Be open-minded
- CA is a spiritual program, not a religious one
- All you have to do is to be willing to believe
- Your Higher Power can be the group as a whole
- You start with belief, your experience will come

Don't leave before the miracle happens!
