STEP ONE

“We admitted we were powerless over cocaine—that our lives had become unmanageable.”

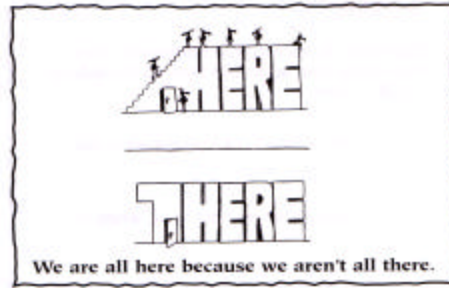

Who cares to admit complete defeat? Admission of powerlessness is the first step in liberation. We know that little good can come to any addict who joins C.A. unless he has first accepted his devastating weakness and all its consequences. Under the lash of addiction, we are driven to C.A. and there we discover the fatal nature of our situation. Then, and only then, do we become as open-minded to conviction and as willing to listen as the dying can be.

The Lighter Side of CA

I worry all the time about being obsessive compulsive.

Quit thinking. (It's what got you here.)

Heaven is just a new pair of glasses.

C. A. Wisdom

There is an answer to everything – it's just a matter of finding it.

Happiness is a by-product of right living.

If you are not grateful for your sobriety, you will not stay sober.
